VTT, Western Canada's largest community Jewish day school serving a student body from ages 3 to 13, is currently recruiting a Behaviour Interventionist for Primary Grades.

See next page for more details

Vancouver Talmud Torah is an inclusive Jewish community day school committed to academic excellence and nurturing lifelong learners who engage the world through Jewish traditions and values. At Vancouver Talmud Torah, we provide a stimulating and challenging educational environment infused with meaningful learning experiences. Our school serves families from a diverse range of Jewish backgrounds and religious practices.

We are currently seeking a candidate to fill the position of a personal Behavior Interventionist to work in the primary grades for the 2019-20 school year. The successful candidate will support our goal to foster caring, creative and curious individuals within the context of an integrated general studies/Judaic studies curriculum. Candidates need not be Jewish, but must be receptive and open to working in a Jewish day school environment.

Our faculty are an integral part of our school community. Vancouver Talmud Torah provides the opportunity to work in a collaborative, innovative and engaging educational setting. We are committed to on-going professional development and mentorship. Our school offers a culture that values academic excellence, community, inclusivity and social responsibility.

Qualifications:

- Experience working with children with special needs.
- Experience working in a school setting.
- Formal education/training an asset.
- Two-year college diploma preferred.
- Successful candidate will be subject to a criminal record check.

The ideal candidate should have a pleasant, easy-going personality, enjoy working with children and families, and be able to establish and maintain respectful relationships with diverse community members.

We thank all candidates in advance, however, only those shortlisted will be contacted.
