At Vancouver Talmud Torah, we provide a stimulating and challenging educational environment infused with meaningful learning experiences. Our school serves families from a diverse range of Jewish backgrounds and religious practices. We are Western Canada's largest Jewish community day school and have 100 years of experience!

We are currently seeking a part-time Counsellor to provide short-term counselling and educational programs to students at VTT effective September 2019. Reporting to the Assistant Head of School, this individual will work as a member of the school-based (special education) team.

Responsibilities:

- Responsible for short-term counselling of individual students on a range of issues (academic concerns, diverse learning styles, social-emotional concerns, etc.).
- Facilitate lunchtime groups focusing on social skill acquisition, relationship building, etc.
- Provide crisis counselling/intervention and be available in the event of a crisis situation.
- Other responsibilities as assigned.

Qualifications:

- Masters in Education (Counselling Psychology) required.
- Demonstrated experience counselling in a school setting.
- Proven ability to facilitate group counselling sessions.
- Excellent communication skills – both verbal and written.
- Strong interpersonal and organization skills.

Our faculty are an integral part of our school community. Vancouver Talmud Torah provides the opportunity to work in a collaborative, innovative and engaging educational setting. We are committed to on-going professional development and mentorship. Our school offers a culture that values academic excellence, community, inclusivity and social responsibility.
