

CONSULAR REPRESENTATIVE VISIT TO VANCOUVER

When: Tuesday Dec 1st & Wednesday Dec 2nd, 2015

Where: Jewish Federation Office

Jewish Federation, in collaboration with the Consulate General of Israel in Toronto, is pleased to announce the visit of a consular representative to Vancouver. The representative will offer consular services that require an in-person meeting.

Appointments will only be scheduled for cases that require the applicant to appear in person and cannot be dealt with by a notary and/or by mail. If the service request is related to minors, they will need to appear before the consular representative as well. During this visit, appointments will be scheduled for:

- First Passport requests - if you have not been issued an Israeli passport in the past
- Requests to renew/extend the passport for a minor
- Requests to replace lost/ stolen/destroyed passports
- Requests to register the birth of Israeli citizens abroad - only parent(s) required to attend
- Changes in marital status
- Applications for a change of name
- Requests for a waiver/cancellation of citizenship

If you want to schedule an appointment to meet with the consular representative, please complete the form below and email it to: dsilberstein@jewishvancouver.com

You will be contacted by the Consulate to schedule a meeting date and time, and you will be advised of any forms or documents required.
