

FILM SCREENING
Thur April 14, 2011
7:00 pm

Empire Theatres - Oakridge Cinemas
650 West 41st Avenue
Free Parking, Canada Line Oakridge Station

Tickets $13.00 in advance at the JCC Front Desk 604-257-5111
$15.00 at the door

Rated: PG — coarse language
A film by Marcos Carnevale
In Spanish with English subtitles

AWARDS

Best Drama & Audience Award
L.A. Latino International Film Festival
Best Supporting Actress,
Leonor Manso
Argentina Film Academy
Best Film Audience Award
Pittsburgh Jewish Film Festival

Anita lives with her devoted mother in a commercial district of Buenos Aires. Into their sweetly sedate life the outside world intrudes with unexpected fury with the bombing of the Jewish Agency Offices.

As Anita wanders the city, lost, she finds compassion in unlikely quarters through the force of her ingenuous personality and open heart, but the kindness is matched with cruelty and abandonment and she must learn to care for herself.

Anita

A HOPEFUL STUDY OF INNOCENCE, COMPASSION AND RESILIENCE IN A TROUBLED WORLD.

Jewish Community Centre
OF GREATER VANCOUVER

