

JOB POSTING

Temple Sholom Youth Advisor

(10 Hours Per Week approx.)

Temple Sholom is a warm, vibrant, energetic Reform Jewish congregation (700 families) in Vancouver, BC Canada. We are seeking a Youth Advisor for our Junior Group / Sholom Scouts (ages 5 – 12) and Senior Youth Group (ages 13 – 17). This position would be the primary staff person for both groups.

A qualified candidate is enthusiastic, energetic and loves working with children and teens. We are seeking an individual who can serve as a positive Jewish role model for our youth and will help to inspire them to find a personal and meaningful connection with Judaism and Jewish life in an informal setting.

Our ideal Youth Advisor will:

- Be excited to help train our teens to be future Jewish leaders by guiding them to develop an enriching youth group program.
- Be familiar with Scouts Canada and enjoy camping, hiking and the outdoors with young children.
- Work collaboratively with the Rabbis, Educators and Youth Commission in order to meet the goals of Temple Sholom's vision for our youth.
- Be self-motivated, organized, technically skilled and be able to work independently when needed.
- Be friendly and a good and responsive communicator.
- Be knowledgeable about Reform Judaism. Prior involvement with NFTY and summer camps would be very beneficial but not necessary.
- Have reliable transportation

Compensation:

Competitive hourly wage, cellphone plan, fun and supportive work environment, opportunity for advancement and growth.

If interested please send a cover letter and resume to rabbi@templesholom.ca. In cover letter applicants should describe their knowledge and experiences in their:

- ✓ Ability to empower and engage youth
- ✓ Skills as a strong informal Jewish educator
- ✓ Ability to work with and relate to K-12 youth and their parents
- ✓ Strong organizational, programmatic and communication skills
