

Minyan

Grades 6/7 September 21, 2015

Answers to: What is Prayer?

Prayer is when we sing to G-d.

To me, prayer is when we say thank you to G-d.

Prayer is the daily connection you make with G-d.

Doing a prayer is a very special way of connecting with G-d.

Prayer means you get to talk to G-d and thank Him for everything he has done.

Prayer is Jews thanking G-d for what he did for the Jews.

Something you can say to connect to G-d.

To me, a prayer is a sign of goodness.

A prayer is when you say something to thank G-d or to ask him for something.

A prayer is something you say when you are thanking someone.

Prayer is speaking/connecting with G-d in a special way.

Prayer is connecting with G-d.

Prayer is conversation with G-d.

I think prayer is a time for you to thank G-d for what you have and to pray about your life and your family's life.

To me, prayer means that we are connecting with G-d and making him happy.

A prayer is a blessing of thanks or gratefulness.

I don't know because I never studied this before.

To me, a prayer is to thank G-d for everything.

I think it means connecting yourself to G-d.

Talking to G-d.

To me, prayer means sending a message to G-d of whatever needs to be said.

A prayer is something you say to G-d that is meaningful and special to you!

Prayer is a way of speaking to G-d.

A prayer is... asking G-d for something, thanking G-d, a way of talking to G-d through your heart.

A prayer means meaningful words that make sentences to help people live and be with G-d.

Talking to G-d – you could be saying sorry, asking/praying for something or learning about the past.

A prayer is saying thank you.

My personal place to think and pray.

Singing a prayer that helps the Holy land.

A prayer is a special way of thanking and saying sorry to G-d.

Prayer means saying thank you to G-d.

To me, prayer means thanking or asking something from G-d.

Prayer is asking for help from G-d in difficult times.

Being connected to my Jewish roots.

Prayer is when we say blessings to G-d, in thanks of what he/she has done.

Prayer is thanking G-d for the things he has given us.

“That G-d caring about us is shown in the form of kindness.”

~Rabbi Feinstein.

Prayer means talking to 'ה.

Asking 'ה' for health and for happiness and good things.

Prayer is when we connect with G-d and tell him/her how much we appreciate what he/she has done for us.

Talking to G-d and thanking him for everything.

A way to communicate with G-d.

Thanking G-d for the earth.

A prayer is a blessing or request that you send to G-d.

Prayer is a message to G-d, but instead of talking, you sing.

I think prayer means thanking and asking G-d for things you need.

It means to me, when you are saying you are thanking G-d and sometimes praying for people to get healthy.

Saying sorry to G-d and singing to him. It is a time of joy.

To me, prayer means escape. I think this because when you pray, you can escape your everyday problems and just have a special connection with G-d.

To me, a prayer means thanking G-d for everything he has given to us.

A prayer is a way to connect to G-d and it's like asking G-d for something.

Prayer means to me connecting with G-d by thanking G-d and saying how grateful we are.

Something that makes you think how lucky you are – giving thanks.

Prayer is a meaningful time when you ask forgiveness or for a blessing from G-d.

Prayer means to me to connect and thank G-d for creating us. Connect to G-d.

A prayer is a meaningful way to tell G-d thank you for everything you've given me in my life.

Thanking G-d for everything he/she has given to us.

To me, a prayer is a song that is sung to pray to G-d, for a person or for a thing.

Prayer is asking G-d for something.

Prayers are connecting with G-d by songs.

Prayer is a way of speaking to G-d.

For me, prayer is a way for me to connect to G-d.

Prayer is to me, reliable.

Prayer is a song that we say to G-d. We pray for forgiveness.

It means respecting G-d.

Prayer means to me to live for G-d, ask him for things, thank him for things.

Prayer is to thank/connect to G-d.

Prayer is thanking G-d for what we have and asking for things.

Prayer is talking to G-d and being respectful.

Prayer means to me the connection to G-d from you and the time to ask for things and for forgiveness.

Prayer is talking to G-d.

Prayer is talking to G-d. Instead of sacrificing animals, we pray.
When you go to shul and you pray for Hashem and you say the Mincha and Musaf and Aravit.

Prayer means that you have a connection with G-d and say thank you.

To me, prayer is our way to communicate and thank G-d for what he has done for the Jews.

Prayer is a blessing to G-d, which is how we talk to him.

Connecting with G-d; asking for good things, forgiveness?

Prayer is a connection between you and G-d.

Prayer is an asking to G-d.

Prayer is a prayer to say forgiveness or thanks to G-d.

Prayer is a ritual where you either ask for forgiveness or blessings from G-d.

For me, prayer is a way for me to connect to G-d through prayer.

Prayer is singing from your heart as a message to G-d.